Living Water

People are thirsty for meaning, purpose and happiness. They're determined to find satisfaction any way they can. God knows that nothing in this world will quench the longings of the human heart, and so his desire is for people to find fulfillment in him. Are you thirsty? God wants to refresh you today.

Read Romans 5: 5-10. According to this scripture, where does the power to love and live righteously come from? How does this make you feel?

Read Jeremiah 2:13. God wants you to allow his life to flow through you. Is there an area where you're too independent? How is God calling you to rest in your relationship with him?

Read Ephesians 3:14-22. The power to love God, others, and yourself comes from the Holy Spirit. How have you experienced that perfect love personally, and how has that love inspired you to do great things?

Close is prayer. Continue to prayerfully read Ephesians 3:14-22 as part of your devotions this week.
